1. They must have the same number of vertices or the set of vertices must be equal.
2. They must have the same number of edges.
3. They must have the same number of connected components.
4. They must have the same number of vertices of each edges.
5. They must have the same number of cycles of each length.